Seated: Henry J. Baumgartner, president; Charles J. Wright, Jr., vice-president; Dr. Roy M. Smith, Margaret Graf, secretary.

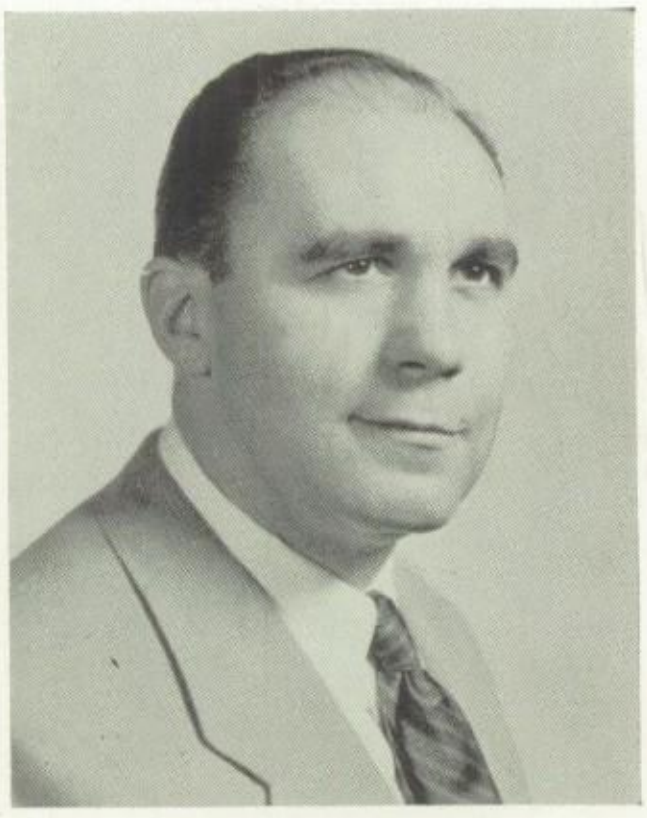
Standing: John R. Smith, solicitor; Dr. Leonard A. Burgard, Charles Thomas, Howard W. Barnett, Clarence H. Lewis.

ADMINISTRATION

The good reputation that Swissvale High enjoys among the schools of the district is largely due to the close cooperation among the members of the school board, the administration, and the faculty.

The board, composed of eight men who give of their time to better the schools and therefore conditions in the community, is an ever present help to students and faculty. Their deep interest in the schools is evidenced in many ways.

CARL S. BAILY
Superintendent of Schools



JOHN C. WEICHEL
High School Principal

Close work and constant cooperation between Mr. Baily and Mr. Weichel make for a strong high school setup. Students have always found that Mr. Baily has a deep store of sympathy for their problems. Mr. Weichel, who often helps students in ways unknown to them, is a real friend who will always give a second chance (and often a third and fourth!)

Our teachers were never too busy to lend a hand or an ear in our problems and joys.

CLASS OF '56

Tom Fulton, Jovonna Cimino, Danny Scott, Georgia Simko.

Next to the senior year, the junior year is surely the happiest! No cloud of gloom darkens the faces of juniors, because they know they still have a whole year to enjoy in school. Looking back on the many exciting events of the year, a few dates stand out prominently.

August 31—this was the first day of school, and the happy faces of Karlin Clinger, Janet Reid, and Jerry Jackson showed how glad they were to be back. After all, what is there to do in the summer?

October was the month of elections, and the Class of '56 proved their good sense by electing a girl, Jovonna Cimino, as president, Tom "Troubles" Fulton as vice-president, Georgia Simko as secretary, and Danny Scott as treasurer.

November was a busy month for Gene Kane, Margie Adams, Pat Ferrence and others, for on the night of November 19 they made their shining debut on stage in the class comedy, "My Little Margie." And Thanksgiving came so fast that it caught Lyn Koontz, Howdy Hoffman, and Madeline Klaus without a turkey!

In December, the thought of Christmas set Joann Chadwick and the Slantz twins to worrying about their Christmas lists. Then came January and February, which crept slowly by, unrelieved by final exams. But then, at last, came March, when an enthusiastic junior class began preparations for their top social event—the Prom.

April 29—At last! It is the evening of the Prom, with its theme of "Moonlight and Roses" and everyone dressed in his best and looking so attractive. The big question of the evening, "Who will be Queen?" kept all the guests in a dither. This was an evening we would like to prolong!

With the coming of May, the Class of '56 began to realize that it was not long for this world. We had tried our best to make history; it will be concluded next year.

CLASS OF '57

Ardy Schweinberg, Pat Wollerton, Connie Koval, Franny Conti.

Never could have been found a more nervous bunch of sophomores than the ones who started high school in September of 1954! But before long we lost our jitters and began to fit into the routine. The first big lesson was learning how a pass slip works (and even harder—how to get one) and the second, getting used to hearing ourselves called "zombie."

This year's sophomores have entered all the activities the school has to offer—sports, publications, parties, and politics. Franny Conti, Larry Olinger, Ruthie Ludwig, John DeLucia, Bucky Norris and Ardy Schweinberg, competed, by way of campaign speeches, for the office of president, with Franny coming up the winner. (He still hasn't gotten us the elevators he promised). Ardy Schweinberg was elected vice-president, Pat Wollerton, treasurer, and Connie Koval, secretary.

The sophs produced by far the best support for the Honor Roll. When the Class of '57 graduates, the colleges had better be prepared to hand out plenty of scholarships to these Einsteins.

The Soph Hop was a gay affair, with beautiful Fall decorations which caused many blisters on our well-worked fingers. Almost professional entertainment was provided by Gretchen Paff, Dot Bechtol, Nancy Simonelli, Barbara Nemitz, Noreen Whalen, Carol Grimm, Joan Spangler, with Ardy Schweinberg as emcee.

To the football team we contributed Franny Conti, Tony Lamberti, Louis Green, Al Reid, Bernie DiBernardo, Bob Klemmer, Bucky Norris, Dave McGough, and letterman—Bill Creighton. In the JV games, Franny, Dave and Bill were steadies.

We zombies also contributed to Open House, with Aldean Johns, Sally Wonders, Gretchen Kelley, Joe Colaguori, and John Anderson taking parts in showing a typical school day.

We are proud that our advisers seem to feel that the Class of '57 is an up and coming one, and we'll do our best to keep them thinking so.

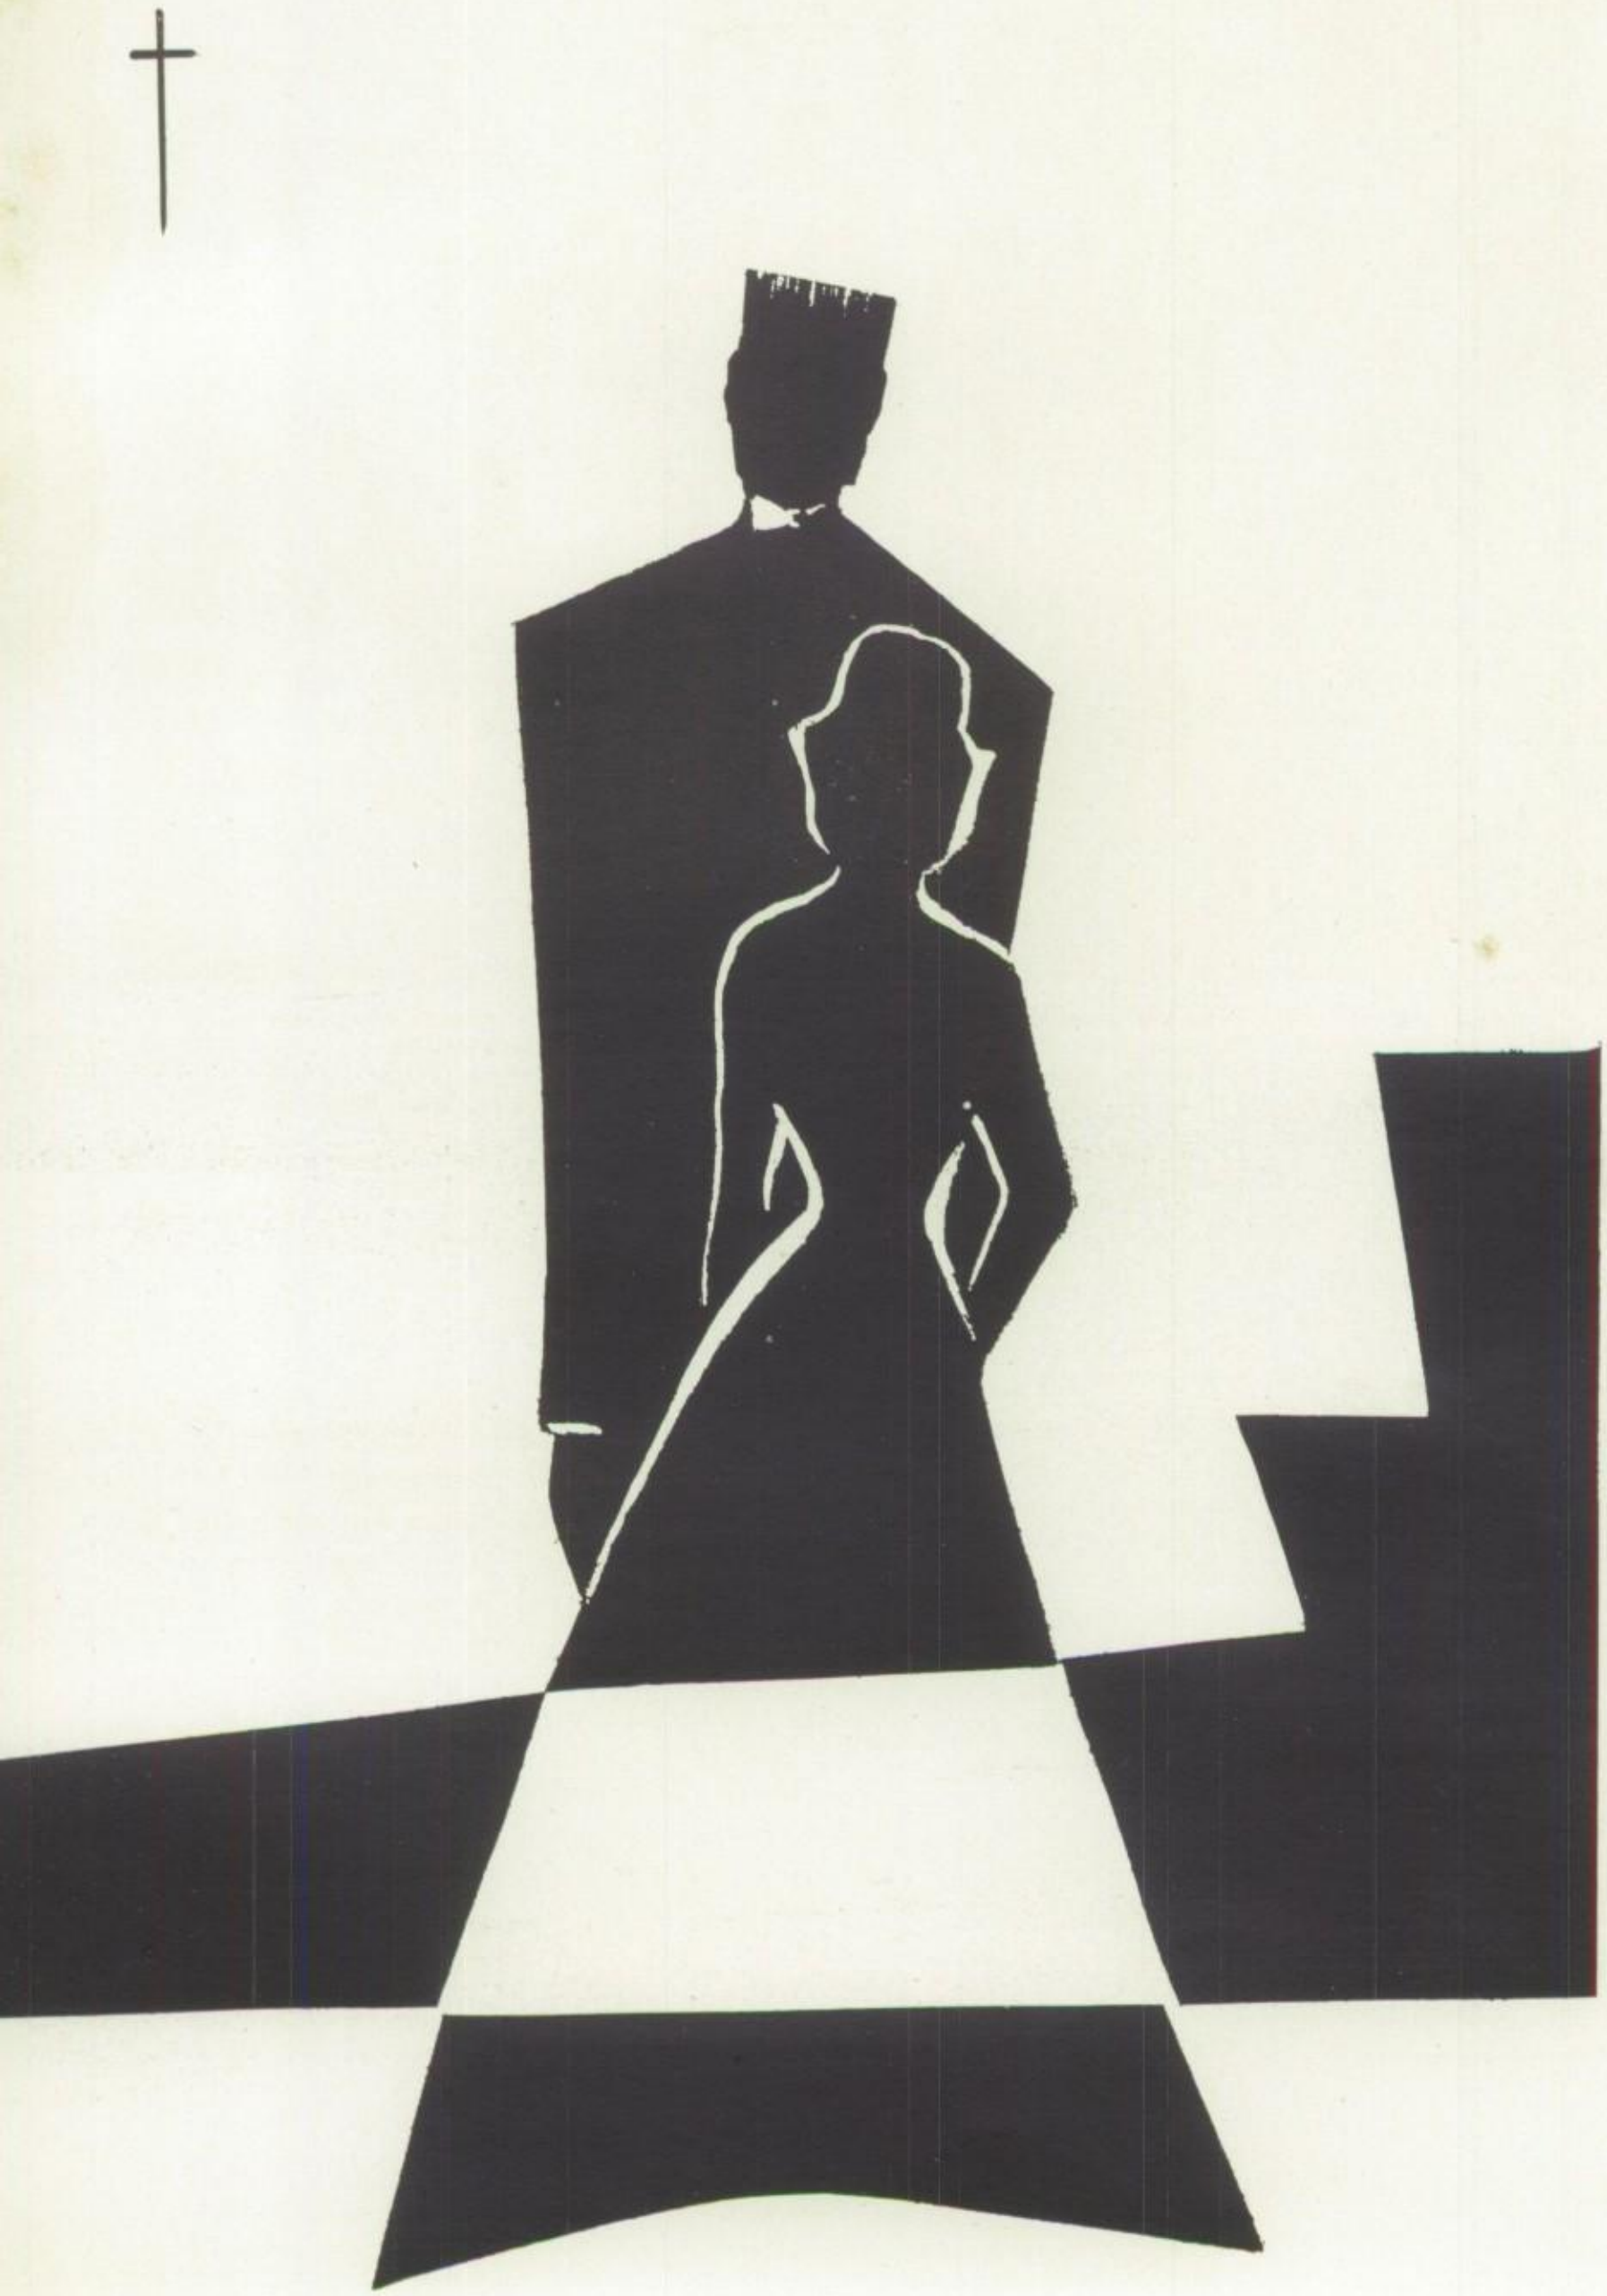
We play



Seated around table: Connie Koval, Noreen Whalen, Jovonna Cimino, Frances McAllister, Nancy Price, Sandra Mattern, Bert Nemitz, Pat Genge, Ruth Ludwig, Audrey Miller.
Standing: Anthony Barbarino, Bucky Norris, Ronnie Scharbo, Tom Fulton, Franny Conti, Dick McAfoose, Corky Johnson, Bob Tammariello, Ken Koontz, Joe Veltre, Ally Reynolds, Ardy Schweinberg.

Every Monday morning all the members of Student Council met in Room 19 to discuss matters pertaining to the student body. "The meeting will please come to order; the secretary will read the minutes of the last meeting." How many times has Bert Nemitz, president of Student Council, repeated these words! Of course vice-president, Ken Koontz, was also present to lend a hand. Then Pat Genge, secretary, read the minutes, and treasurer Joe Veltre gave his report on the financial situation.

Student Council is made up of a representative from each homeroom and school organization. Each member does his part and this close cooperation is what makes Student Council such a smooth running organization.

This group is responsible for many of the activities in SHS. One of the most popular of these is the dances, especially the Victory Dance at the close of the football season. They also take charge of the intramural games and hold the basketball finals in the Dickson gym. To top off the year, they arrange Senior Day, perhaps the most looked-forward-to day of the year.

None of this could be possible without Mr. Toth, who was always willing to give his time and aid.

STUDENT COUNCIL

QUILL and SCROLL

Ed Zinman, Sandra Shogren, Jim Craig.

This trio, honorary members of the International Society of Quill and Scroll, represent a high degree of journalistic endeavor and loyalty to Swissvale High's publications. Jim, as feature editor of the Valistic, and Ed, as news editor, kept up a high standard of work all the time they were associated with the paper. Jim also assisted in the literary portion of the yearbook.

Sandy, whose second home was Room 6, brought her original touch and her dependability to the editing of the 1955 SWISSVALIAN.

Mrs. Rita Schmitt, Valistic sponsor, and Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, adviser to the SWISSVALIAN, sponsored the Jane Grey Swisshelm chapter of Quill and Scroll.

HONOR AWARDS

Kathleen Kopfer, a newcomer from Allentown, fitted right in with the Class of 1955 here at SHS. Kathy is pointing to two recently added plaques, one of which will record the names of the valedictorian and salutatorian of classes beginning with 1950. The other will record the winners of the Rotary Club award, instituted this year and presented to the senior who is rated tops in citizenship. A Golden Anniversary project of the local Rotarians, this award carries with it a twenty-five dollar U. S. Savings Bond.

SWISSVALIAN

This year's SWISSVALIAN was made possible by the business staff, who carefully watched the money and tried to str-e-t-ch it, plus the editorial staff, who wrote many of the writeups you are reading now.

Hours of work, patience, and frustration were put into these 84 pages. Not only physical activity was exerted but mental effort, too! To understand how the book was put together, we shall go back to an evening after school, to the one and only home of the yearbook—Room 6.

"Ooooh! I cut her elbow off!" "Which dog-gone twin is it—Lyn or Jo?" Then things would run along smoothly for awhile until some of the senior writeups would disappear. A ghost? A goblin? A thief? No, just hidden under a pile of debris on the counter. Great! The writeups found, now we can really get moving. Uh-oh! What's this? Several extra pages! In the beginning, every inch of space was accounted for, and now we find four extra pages. How could that possibly be? (Someone doesn't know that 5 comes after 4).

Now we move over to the desk and the accounts. What? Two hundred dollars in debt! Impossible—couldn't be—but it is true. Engravings, printing, and covers—all this adds up, and not much income. Now, the problem is: how to raise that money ! ! Selling pencils? Hocking used Valistics? No—there is another way. Patrons.

Such goings-on continued into the wee hours, and after much laughing, lots of grueling labor, and perhaps a few snacks, the weary workers would leave.

So endeth another working day, and two more pages finished, a little closer to the goal —the finished yearbook!

Mr. F. S. Huot of the Kopp Glass Co. signs on the dotted line as business manager Dick McAfoose looks on approvingly.

VALISTIC

Things really kept moving in Room 6 the weeks a VALISTIC was to come out. Cries of "What happened to the correction fluid?" rang out, intermingled with the anguished groans of someone who had just gotten mimeograph ink on her new dress.

Co-editors Nancy Hauser and Nancy Dannels worked many nights after school, trying to meet their deadlines (and succeeding). News Editor Ed Zinman consumed an enormous amount of aspirin trying to rewrite his stories, while Feature Editor Jim Craig wore out three whips trying to get his in!

At the last minute, Joe Veltre, the capable Sports Editor, would come running in with the latest intramural scores. And good use was made of Art Editor Velma Veith's artistic ability.

There was never a dull moment, as typists ran around looking for correction fluid and mimeographers coaxed the machine to PLEASE work, for just one more page!

Miss George (who later became Mrs. Schmitt) seemed to have inexhaustable patience, as she helped iron out problems that threatened to drive everyone else batty.

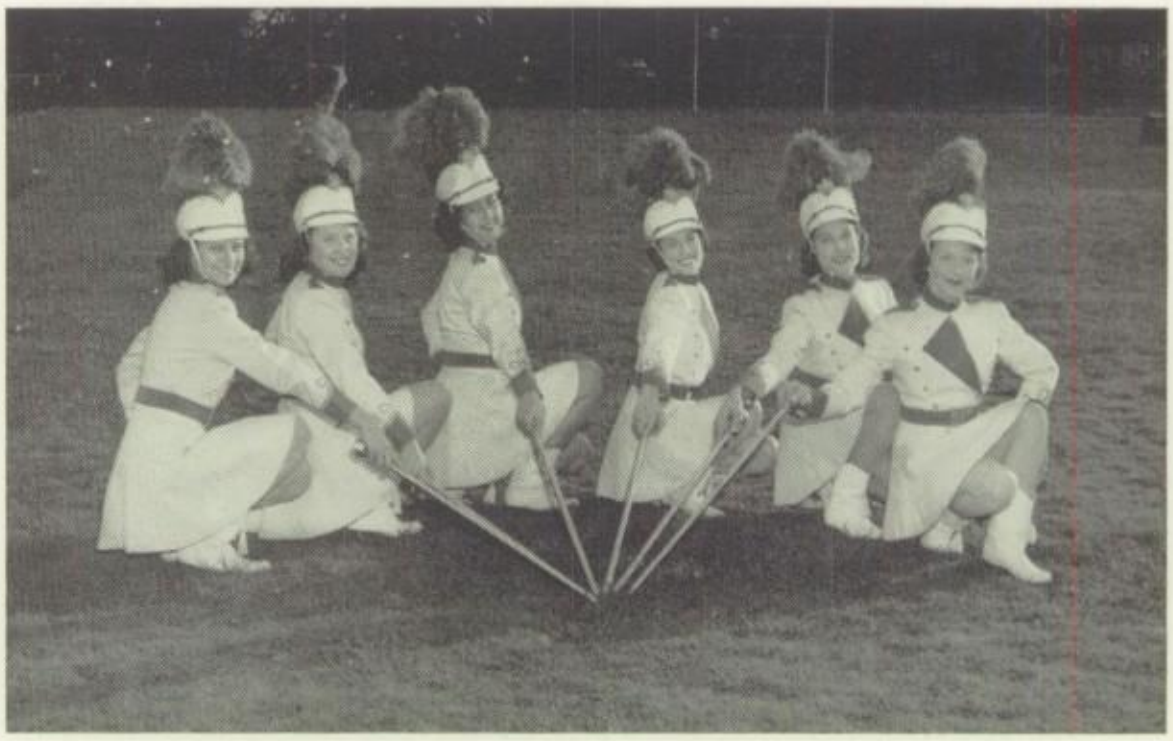
SWISSVALE HIGH SCHOOL BAND



Marlene Seman, Barb Koontz, Betty Vaccaro, Bobbie Barefoot, Connie Koval, Patty Roberts.

How proud Swissvale High has always been of her majorettes, as they lead the band through their tricky routines. Townspeople and students alike find it a real pleasure to watch them as they prance across town to the field to put on their demonstrations during halftime. This year we lose seniors Barbara Koontz, Betty Vaccaro, and Bobbie Barefoot, but have, to carry on next year, Marlene Seman, Connie Koval, and Patty Roberts.

And band members! Remember those seventh periods at Dickson Field? And how, at 3:05, the temperature would rise at least ten degrees? Remember how the passersby would stop and listen to the calls "Right flank, left flank—march!" And "Double to the rear!" All this, and precision marching, too!

Then the beginning of the halftime show! With ranks in order and our brand new uniforms in perfect condition, we would make our entrance, spelling out S-W-I-S-S-V-A-L-E H-I-G-H S-C-H-O-O-L B-A-N-D.

Below is an example of one of our routines, showing off our uniforms to their best advantage.

A CAPPELLA

Strains from "Red Wing," "Just Another Polka," and "No Man Is an Island" filled SHS with melody almost every fifth period during the year. A peek into the auditorium would show the group of some sixty boys and girls who were responsible for this harmony, along with Mr. Hill, who held them together—but not without some hard work!

It was an interesting sight to watch Mr. Hill trying to get some syncopated beat into the sopranos or nearly bursting a button at the tenors' high F. The altos and basses came in for their share of exhortation, as they were reminded about pitch, change of key, and harmony.

After all these corrections, the choir would get all set to really do it right, when some silly soprano's giggle would create the command, "Start walking—five minutes." After another start, the voices would finally blend in such sweet harmony that the choir was surprised at themselves and Mr. Hill delighted.

Representing our choir at District Choir, held in Moon Township this year, were Corky Johnson, Ginny Caldwell, Joe Veltre, and Pat Jamison. After tryouts at District, Corky was selected to go on to State Choir at Minersville where he sang second tenor under John Raymond, guest conductor of the 200 voice choir.

CHOIR

OFFICERS

Toni Badali, as secretary-treasurer of the choir, was one girl who kept some sixty boys and girls in line and out of debt. Bob "Tammy" Tammariello, president, took over in Mr. Hill's absence and led the choir in its many popular Fred Waring arrangements. Vice-president Tom Ramsey was always there with his flashing smile.

To Right of Ladder: Sam Rocco, Jack McKibben, Dick Sadvary.

On Ladder: Georgetta Catone, Bill Glenn, Mike Cencarik.

Around the Ladder: Mary Lou Nowak, Donna Danielson, Sandy Shogren, Janet Donohue, George Whitehead, Rusty Spangler, Paul Planinich, John Domer, Vic Galbraith.

On the Ladder: Velma Veith, Barb Venturini, Yvonne Brugh.

These art students found that there were more fields in art than steps on these ladders. They explored painting, sculpture, design, lettering, figure drawing and reproduction in block prints and silk screen, to name only a few.

One of the main features of the art classes every year is the Woman's Club poster contest, in which the art students take an active part. Awards are given for the outstanding posters of the group. Winners of last year's contest included Bob Dreistadt and Herman Goubeaud.

Our artists, under Mr. Boak's inspiring direction, are responsible for the fine scenery of the junior and senior class plays, as well as for the many attractive posters we see in our halls throughout the year.

Y-TEENS

A BIG spaghetti dinner at the Methodist Church started the Y-Teens rolling this year. Christmas activities included trimming the tree here at SHS and helping with the "hanging of the greens" at the East Liberty YWCA.

Then came Candlelight, at which junior girls became full-fledged members. Following the initiation a little treat was served—and then the music began for dancing. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Pat Laffey as Y-Teen Sweetheart.

All during the year the girls worked to build up their fund which awards a senior girl a scholarship.

Nancy Dickson, treasurer; Nancy Dannels, vice-president; Barb Koontz, president; Pat Laffey, secretary and Y-Teen Sweetheart.

CANDY CORPORATION

"A Clark bar, please; no, make it a Hershey." These familiar requests echoed through the halls every lunch-time and after school.

We are fortunate to have such a thriving organization in our school, from which so many lucky students receive large dividends every spring. The SHS Candy Corporation is a miniature model of a life-size business. They have stockholders and officers who keep it a going concern.

Yvonne Brugh was elected chief, with Pat Laffey assisting, and when it came to money, Joan Steele was the one to see. Pat Ferrence, secretary, reported Madeline Klaus as the star salesman.

CHESS CLUB

"I say there, old bean, your queen's in danger!" No it's not knights in armor—only the SHS Chess Club, practicing for a big game. Although not too successful, the boys (and girls) had a lot of good times. They played both at home and away, playing five games at each match.

In this, its second year, the club added five girls to its membership. Bert Nemitz was elected president and was aided by vice-president Bernie Madyda.

Due to the fact that the club did not enter the league in time, SHS was not included in the schedule and couldn't play as many games as they did last year. In two games that were played, they lost to Taylor Allderdice by a score of 4-1. In competition with Mt. Lebanon, they tied 2½-2½.

First Row: Ken Jones, Sam Begg, Howdy Hoffman, Bill Cottom.
Second Row: Joe Capezzuto, Louie Lanyi, Larry Camberg, Jerry Jackson.

We can thank these boys and Mr. Boak for taking care of such essential auditorium activities as props for assemblies and sets for the plays. Whether it be scrubbing, painting, or rebuilding the flats, they invariably come up with something suitable and attractive. They are the all 'round handymen who know the switchboard from A to Z and who have the remarkable knack of being able to find anything in the supply room.

Barb Venturini, whose pep will be missed at next year's pep meetings, leads in:

We got a T-E-A-M
That's on the B-E-A-M;
We got a team that's on the beam
That's really hep to the jive.
Come on, Swissvale, skin 'em alive.
Beat Rankin!

Lyn Koontz urges the kids to scream:

Ala-ga-ne, ke-nack, ke-nack
Ala-ga-ne, ke-nack, ke-nack
Hoo-rah, hoo-rah
Team! Team!
Beat Homestead!

Harriet Williams, the acrobat of the cheerleaders, showed her skill in:

Yea, team! Fight, fight, fight!
Yea, team! Fight, fight, fight!
Yea, team! Fight, fight, fight!
Beat North Huntingdon!

Jo Koontz urges the opponents to:

Go back, go back, go back to the woods;
Ya haven't, ya haven't, ya haven't got the goods!
Ya haven't got the rhythm, ya haven't got the jazz!
Ya haven't got the team that SWISSVALE has!
Beat Shaler!

Ally Reynolds, a "springy" little senior, winds up with:

Aka laka ching
Aka laka chow
Aka laka ching ching chow chow chow
Boom a laka
Boom a laka
Sis boom bah
Swissvale, Swissvale
Rah rah rah!
Beat Bellmar!

FOOTBALL - 1954

RANKIN AT SWISSVALE

Opening the '54 season, the Gold Flashes defeated the Rankin Jackrabbits by a score of 20-18. Two touchdowns were scored by Richard "Smitty" Smith and the other by Tom Ramsey.

BELLMAR AT SWISSVALE

The spirited Flashes won their first A game by smashing Bellmar 39-6. Star fullback, Bob Tammariello, scored one TD; Smitty scored two; Danny Scott scored two; and Jerry Jones accounted for one. Extra points were added by Tom Hall.

NORTH HUNTINGDON AT SWISSVALE

Leading a successful season, the Flashes downed North Huntingdon 20-6, knocking them out of the Class A race. Bob Tammariello accounted for two touchdowns and Tom Ramsey for one. Hall converted for two extra points.

SWISSVALE AT SHALER

Another victory for the Gold Flashes was gained when they defeated Shaler 27-7. Three TD's were chalked up by Tammariello and one by Ramsey. Three extra points kicked by Tom Hall gave the Flashes their total points.

HOMESTEAD AT SWISSVALE

For the fifth win in a row, the Gold Flashes downed Homestead 27-12. The longest run of the year, 99 yards, was made by Smitty. Tammariello led the scoring with two TD's. The other touchdown was scored on a pass from "Corky" Johnson to Jerry Jones.

SWISSVALE AT BRADDOCK

The Flashes lost their first game of the season to Braddock, who later proved to be the champs. It was a bad night for Swissvale, as they ended up on the short end of a 25-0 score.

SWISSVALE AT TARENTUM

The shock of the Braddock game was still evident when the Koepkamen defeated Tarentum by a score of only 6-0. Hulick starred on defense, intercepting three passes and setting up the only TD, which was scored by "Tammy."

SWISSVALE AT BALDWIN

The second loss for the Flashes occurred when they met a strong Baldwin in heavy mud. A spiritless Swissvale eleven lost by a score of 20-0.

WILMERDING AT SWISSVALE

The final game of the season left the Gold Flashes with one of the most successful seasons in the history of SHS as they trounced Wilmerding, 25-0. TD's were scored by Ramsey, Hulick, and Scott. A pass from Ramsey to Jones ended the fast game. Tom Hall kicked the last successful extra point.

TOM RAMSEY — Happy Halfback

The "old man" of the football team. One of the greatest sports on the field and off.

DICK McAFOOSE — Growling Guard

A lineman who worked for perfection all year. This boy put his notebook learning to work on the field.

KEN KOONTZ — Great Guard

Ken, the Flash, was always known for getting his man one way or another, no matter what!

JIM HULICK — Impressive Punter

"Hul's" specialty was the long spiralling punt which often sent the opponent deep in his own territory.

BOB TAMMARIELLO — F'rocious Fullback

Bob, a powerful fullback, was high scorer of the season because of his line plunges.

CHARLES MARTONI — Tremendous Tackle

"Charlemagne" showed his great spirit in the way he overcame his knee injury to play a great season.

LARRY MULKERIN — Lineman Larry

A good lineman, Larry was hampered by injuries most of the season. However, he did a good job when he played.

CORKY JOHNSON — Persistent Passer

Corky, who was usually seen throwing those long passes, kept the spirit up on defense and offense.

JOE LAMBERTI — Slaving Center

A small man for this position, but because of his hard work, he made up for his size in skill.

EARL BENNER — Terrific Tackle

"Big Ben," our representative on the WPIAL football team, was a big stone in our offensive and defensive wall.

TOM HALL — Talented Toe

His booming kickoffs and "clutch" extra points were a great asset to the team throughout the season.

RUSTY SPANGLER — Ever-present End

"Flick," a substituting end, could be counted on for help on the field and stopping the "midnight reverse."

RICHARD SMITH — Speedy Smitty

The flash halfback you saw scoring on long runs for Swissvale and breaking the game wide open was this boy.

BOB McCRACKEN — Laughing Lineman

Cracko, a versatile lineman, could be depended upon for playing either guard or tackle with great ability.

Hail to the Varsity;
Cheer them along the way;
Onward to victory
May they win again today!
We'll give a cheer for the Varsity
Long may they reign supreme;
Shout till the echoes ring
For the glory of our team!

INTRAMURALS

One of the most popular activities sponsored by Student Council is the intramural sports program. Each year it is expanded to include more sports and thus appeals to more students. Interest in the games, always at a high level, reaches fever pitch when playoff season arrives.

In the basketball playoffs, the senior boys from Room 14, coached by "Dudey MacGoose," won their first championship by defeating the juniors from Room 11, 35-29. This was particularly hard on Room 11, as they won the championship last year. Outstanding players in this game were Ramsey, Donofrio, Lamberti, McConnell, Harris and Zagorac.

Room 14's girls, who for three years were champs, with never a final win, lost again this year when the junior girls from Room 3 defeated them 26-16 in the Dickson gym. The teams were evenly matched, which resulted in a thrilling game.

Last Fall, lunchtime was busy with volleyball and softball games. In the volleyball finals, Room 14's girls were champs and Room 21's boys. Softball victors were Room 24's sophomore girls and Room 21's junior boys.

BOWLING CLUB

The Bowling Club had again this year Miss Robbins as sponsor and Joe Veltre as president. Assisting were Bob Tammariello, vice-president; Mary Ann Cresto, secretary; and Pat Jamison, treasurer.

The club met Monday nights at the Star Bowling Alleys, where everyone in the league was ready to give the other members a cheer, whether they bowled a "gutter ball" or a "strike." Averages ranged from a high 150 to a lo-o-w 50, but the bowlers were more interested in fun than they were in high scores.

Outstanding bowlers for the year were Marian Havranek, Pat Jamison, Joe Veltre, and Bob Tammariello.

Seated: Liz McKim, Pat Kearns, Ardie Schweinberg, Cathy Hosper, Jerry Biehl.
Kneeling: Dolly Horcholic, Janet Daniels, Ginny Caldwell, Barbara Chizmar, Nina Smith, Pat Jamison, Barb Koontz.
Standing: Joe Veltre, Jim Zetwo, Larry Mulkerin, Jim Craig, Don Haddle, Willard McKay, Bob Tammariello, Mary Ann Cresto.

First Row: Tony Lamberti, Bob Lucas, Jerry Jones, Joe Lamberti, Mike Borellis.
Second Row: Dave McGough, Bucky Norris, Danny Scott, Nick Moraytis.
Third Row: Sully Amodeo, Bob McCracken, Bob Tammariello, Francis Johns.
Fourth Row: Kenny Jones, Rusty Spangler, Tom Ribich, Dick Martin.
Fifth Row: Bill Stanton, Jim Zetwo, Joe Colondre, Albert Taylor.
Sixth Row: Tom Fulton, Willard McKay, Bernie DiBernardo, Augie Tammariello, Gary Haberle, Richie Lanyi. Sidney Uram, Manager.

BASEBALL 1955

A few weeks after this picture was taken, the boys blossomed out in their spring outfits —spanking new uniforms. Fortified also with new equipment, the team had high hopes for a successful season.

Although this year's team had few veterans, some of the less experienced players showed promise. Both the old and the new Flashes hoped to change last year's background music, "Rain, Rain, Rain" to "Please, Mr. Sun." Suffering four rainouts at the opening of the season last year, the team pulled through with two wins and two losses as a starter for the season. With the weather's cooperation, Coach Dennison and the boys hope to rack up a banner season this year against opposing nines from Turtle Creek, Wilkinsburg, Penn, Braddock, and Scott.

Transportation Control Engineering at Union Switch & Signal

Union Switch & Signal specializes in Transportation Control Engineering . . . offers many opportunities that challenge the interest and ability of electrical, mechanical, and electronic engineers.

These people are engaged in the constant research and intensive design engineering that produce today's modern Traffic Control Systems—like Centralized Traffic Control, Cab Signals, and Inductive Train Communication for the railroads . . . as well as Aviation and Highway Controls.

The new engineer is fully trained, both by classroom study and actual work, in the varied phases of these systems that keep people and goods moving faster . . . more safely . . . in a modern world that demands the highest degree of transportation efficiency.
